

B.53

MINI MODELS

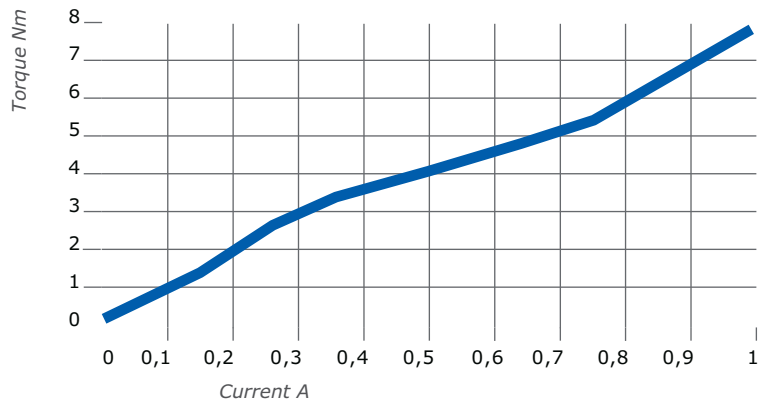

These models are mainly used in the textile and metal wire sectors where applications providing low web tension and precise control of the tension applied to the material are essential.

Our technical offices are able to provide customers with applications that satisfy their specific requirements, including brakes fitted with radiators or fans, or design special miniature clutch or brake models.

B.20

B.53

B.55

